CONGRESSMEN TOLD TO HURRY

Democratic Leaders Back from Vacation Hope To Speed Must" Legislation

ROOSEVELT BACK TOO

Farley Starts Cross Country Trip But Denies It Includes Political Work

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON July 15 Back from a week-end of fishing and shooting with President Roosevelt Democratic leaders faced a hot weather task of truly formidable proportions today

They sought to hasten congressional action on a weighty list of controversial subjects Although they still were mentioning August 15 as a desirable date for adjournment they did so only in a half hearted way Most of them believed the session would go considerably beyond that

If any plans laden with significance for 1936 or for the present legislative fights were discussed during the outing at the Jefferson Island club in Chesapeake bay all the leaders were mum about them today

Claim It Was Just Outing

They insisted that it was an outing—just that and nothing more Mr Roosevelt returned by motor from Annapolis where he had disembarked from the government yacht Sequoia He had a new coat of tan and he waved his hat jovially at a crowd near the dock

Also returning with a party that included Vice President Garner and many other Democratic leaders was Postmaster General Farley who had to get ready for a swing across the country starting today

As he closed his desk Farley still insisted that his trip to the west coast and the Hawaiian islands is strictly a vacation Mrs Farley and Ambrose O Connell his executive assistant are going with him

The week-end was reported to have restored harmony between two men who have been writing pungent letters to each other over the Virgin Islands investigation A Democrat who was on the outing said Secretary Ickes and Sen Tydings (D) of Maryland spent much time together laughing and joking

In Fight Last Week

Last week Ickes assailed Tydings methods in conducting the inquiry and Tydings requested him in effect to attend to his own business

Besides the Roosevelt tax program which has yet to be drafted into bill form in the face of vehement opposition by industrial and business leaders congress faces final action on these matters among others

The utilities bill the social security bill the amendments designed to broaden the AAA and clinch its constitutionality the omnibus banking bill the resolution aimed to prevent suits for recovery of damages alleged to have been suffered by the government s abrogation of the gold clause in its securities the Guffey coal regulation bill

SEEK EARLY ACTION ON SCIOTO PROJECT

MEETING HELD IN WASHINGTON

Sponsors of Scioto Sandusky Conservancy Program Seek Decision on Funds

FLOOD COMMITTEE TO ACT

FERA Ready To Start Work When Approval Is Given by Authorities

Sponsors of the $38,000,000 Scioto-Sandusky flood control and water conservation project today were pushing to a conclusion their efforts to obtain a decision on federal allotment of funds according to information received from the office of Brooks Fletcher Eighth district congressman in Washington D C

Mr Fletcher arranged a conference Friday with C T Westbrook assistant to Harry L Hopkins works progress administration director W T Martin of Upper Sandusky chairman of the conservancy board and Louis Adams attorney for the conservancy district

The federal emergency relief officials went over the details of the project with the representatives of the district and the FERA organization in Ohio under the state administrator will furnish the workers from the relief rolls who are to be employed on the actual construction

It has been estimated that 1,000,000 persons reside in the 17 counties comprising the district with a total of about 30,000 families now on relief 20,000 of whom are employable

Cost Per Worker High

As the project application now stands an analysis of the cost and the probable work hours it will produce federal officials state that the annual expenditure per man would average more than $1600 per annum whereas the maximum fixed by the administration has been set at around $1,140 To bring the Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy district within the limit the FERA officials suggested at the conference that other projects in Ohio, adjacent to the conservancy district or within its boundaries be included in one requisition and placed before the national emergency council The minor projects which require practically all hand labor would reduce the average annual expenditure per man to the normal rate fixed by the government it has been estimated

Because the Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy District is primarily a flood control project the application will be submitted to the committee for coordination of flood control the new agency that will pass on matters of this kind Heading this agency is Frederick A Delano as chairman and General E M Markham of the army engineers as vice chairman This agency held their first meeting last week and a general policy for procedure is being prepared for submission to the White House and the four members of the board for approval

Colonel Westbrook told Congressman Fletcher Mr Martin and Mr Adams that State FERA Director Stillman has his Ohio organization complete and is ready to function as soon as the conservancy district s application is approved by the flood coordination committee and sanctioned by the White House No opposition to the district s application has been found by the district s representatives now in Washington Chairman Martin and Attorney Adams All federal officials who have gone over the application declare it to be feasible The next move is now on the part of the committee for coordination of flood control this committee being scheduled to act in the near future

The recent conference was preceded by interviews with Secretary Ickes at the White House Captain ..ay of the army engineers, Chairman Walker of the NEC and members of the Ohio delegation including the senators Mr Martin and Mr Adams said

DUCK AND DOG BECOME PALS AS CHILD'S PETS

Easter Gifts of Six-Year Old Marion Girl Become Unusual Playmates.

A duck and a puppy that are friends are the unusual pets of six-year-old Patricia Lee Murphy of Marion

Rivals of the famous Three Musketeers of fiction fame when it comes to sticking together Patricia and her pets may be seen romping together at almost any time of day at the home of her parents Mr and Mrs J E Murphy of 237 Uhler avenue

Wherever Patricia goes, Missy, a six months-old Chow puppy, is almost certain to follow And wherever Missy goes Jasper a six months-old duck, invariably waddles after her

Unlike the Musketeers it isn t exactly a case of one for all and all for one Patricia will tell you in a low voice lest her pets overhear her that Missy isn t so pleased with Jasper s attentions but there isn t much Missy can do about the situation because Jasper virtually adopted the puppy as his own.

Easter Gifts.

The strange friendship (with the possible exception of Missy s aloofness as far as Jasper is concerned) began shortly after last Easter when the three were brought together Missy was given to Patricia by her parents as an Easter present. At the same time Patricia s grandparents Mr and Mrs D C Rogers of Columbus ..

Sherrill Move Regarded as Step To Remove Politics from Government

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O July 15 The Ohio government survey committee recommended today placement of the director of public works under civil service and changes in business procedure of the division to effect economies

In a report to Gov Davey the committee suggested an $18,700 slash in the 1935-36 departmental budget This would reduce the division operating expenses to $80, 30.

Observers interpreted the civil service provision as another link in the announced policy of the survey director Col C O Sherrill to advocate state government operation on a business-like basis by reducing political influence

The method of appointing the public works director was termed by the committee archaic and extremely faulty The position is filled yearly by the governor I S Brindle of Ashland is now director

BUSINESS PUZZLES AYRES OF CLEVELAND

Cites Goods Shortage and Idle Capital with Operations Still Lagging

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., July 15 — Col. Leonard P. Ayres, Cleveland economist, said today the most puzzling part of the nation's business picture has been the failure of two factors—extensive shortages of goods and accumulations of idle capital to spur new activity.

Few existing businesses are failing, he said in his monthly business review, but almost no new ones of importance are being started. It is a strange anomaly that huge shortages and accumulated idle capital are not being recognized as constituting opportunity.

In general business during the first half of 1935 has followed the trend and has been slightly better than in 1934, Col. Ayres said. While steel output has slightly decreased, the auto industry has advanced its production 50 per cent. The volume of industrial production has been declining during the first half of this year.

The most noteworthy fact about the iron and steel industry, the Ayres review said, is its increasing dependence upon the automobile industry. The auto industry has continually bettered its product, lowered its price and increased its volume.

WORKS RELIEF PLAN DROPPED

Program Mapped by National Resources Board Abandoned As Projects' Pattern

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON [illegible] High officials said today that elaborate plans prepared by the national resources board on which President Roosevelt originally based the $4,000,000,000 work relief program have been abandoned so far as the present job drive is concerned.

Lack of money and the need for speed in getting started toward the goal of 3,500,000 jobs were given as the chief reasons.

With Secretary Ickes as its chairman the board submitted to Mr Roosevelt last year a co-ordinated public works program to improve land, water and mineral resources. It suggested a permanent works program which might involve expenditure of $125,000,000,000 in the next half century.

Boards Plans First

Explaining some of the delay in the present works program one high official said today that it was not until May after the work relief act was passed that any plans for spending the huge appropriation existed except for those prepared by the board.

He said that although the public works administration had collaborated in drawing up the program it had no plans of its own. Neither he said had Harry L Hopkins relief administration because neither Hopkins nor Ickes knew until two weeks after the works relief act was signed which would be in charge.

After Hopkins was given the principal role it was said he found that two difficulties would prevent carrying out the national resources board program.

For Rivers and Harbors

1 Much of the work it proposed in particular for rivers and harbors erosion control and highway construction would be in sparsely settled areas where the relief load is light. It also would require several years to complete. This would leave little for projects in large cities where the destitute are concentrated or for the 750,000 or more white collar workers.

2 The resources board program called for a large expenditure on materials—how much was never disclosed but certainly more than the $1,500,000,000 to be spent on materials under the revised program.

As a result it was said a halt was called after Mr Roosevelt had allotted about $1,000,000,000.

DUCK AND PUPPY BECOME ODD PALS

her the duckling its feathers dyed green as an Easter gift.

Jasper developed an unusual affection for the puppy and started tagging her. When Missy would lie down Jasper would approach her clucking softly and pick gently at her ears or tail or find something to do nearby. Jasper was plainly bored by the attention Patricia's mother said.

Attachment Grows

Although Missy failed to return the duckling's affection Jasper become more and more insistent on being with the puppy and today will set up a raucous cry when Missy gets out of sight. Every night Missy gets to go inside to sleep while Jasper protesting against the separation has to find a roost outside. The duck waits at the door next morning until Missy comes out.

Missy has learned to tolerate the duck's affections Mrs Murphy said. She never harms him although she won't permit him to eat out of her pan and sometimes plays roughly. Jasper doesn't seem to mind the rough play.

If Missy fails to show affection for the duck she makes it up in her loyalty to Patricia who also stands high in Jasper's regard. Jasper doesn't mind if Patricia handles her but squawks loudly if anyone else tries to hold her.

Painful Separation

When Mr and Mrs Murphy and Patricia went away for a week's vacation last month taking Missy along neighbors reported that heartbroken Jasper complained loudly finally finding company in his reflection in a basement window. Since their return Jasper has not trusted Missy out of his sight apparently afraid of another vacation trip. If while they are together in the yard Missy moves a few feet Jasper moves also.

Whether Missy and Jasper will be able to entertain themselves when Patricia starts to school next year at the Pearl street building is a question that's puzzling Mrs Murphy. The family will move this week to 32 [illegible] drive and of course Missy and Jasper are moving too.

BOARD COMMENTS ON EXAMINERS' REPORT

sioners asserted that the law does not require them to advertise for bids. They added they are principally interested in seeing that county charges get competent care at a reasonable price and are satisfied that the present arrangement for physician's services is satisfactory making a change unnecessary. As evidence of competent care under the present plan the commissioners asserted there have been no epidemics or other health troubles at the county home. When asked if there was anything in the present contract for medical care at county institutions limiting the total amount of money that could be spent in a year for that purpose they answered in the negative explaining that all calls to county institutions are made on the basis of a certain amount for each trip and a certain amount for every patient given care on these trips.

Regarding overdue bills owed by the county to state institutions for care of county wards and patients the commissioners said these bills will be paid as quickly as money becomes available for that purpose.

In connection with the examiners finding that some county bills had been paid twice the commissioners said they understood that checking guard against duplicate payments was part of the duty of the county auditor.

Declare Security Checked

The commissioners said regarding the examiners criticism that they had not fully complied with law regarding examination of mortgage notes given the county by banks to insure county funds on deposit in banks that they had satisfied themselves in every case that the county funds were adequately protected. To follow the law requiring that all land involved in these notes be appraised and abstracts be made of the title of the land would require heavy expenditure that would more than offset the interest the county collects from banks board members said.

Members of the board of commissioners are J O Weiss L J Cusic and O L McCurdy.

Thomas Defends Action

Earl L Thomas former county auditor and now county representative in the state legislature asserted today that he has no apologies to make for his omission of real estate tax penalties in 1932 held by the examiner to have been an illegal omission. Charged by the examiner with having omitted penalties totaling $71,110 that year without authority to do so Auditor Thomas said he would make the same move again in the same circumstances under which the penalties were omitted at that time. It was during one of the lowest points of the depression with delinquencies piling up and little tax money coming in that the omissions were made Mr Thomas said. He also pointed out that the legislature was making some tax delinquent concessions at the time he acted.

Davis claims that the statements credited to the two men resulted in Harmony township refusing to reemploy him for another year as superintendent of schools and that statements which were to the effect that Davis is an immoral man had in fact so influenced the board. Davis was superintendent of the Marengo schools for the last five years.

He asks $5,000 damages from each of the two men against whom he has filed suits separately.

The banker and pastor have retained Benjamin Olds Mt Gilead attorney to fight the suits. He filed the demurrers Friday but no date has been set by the court for a hearing on it.

It was reported when the suits were filed that Davis had obtained affidavits from several persons to whom the statements concerning his morality were made when a petition was being circulated requesting the Marengo board to reemploy him.

The Pennington board of education refused to consider the petition which was signed by a large number of voters and employed C B Crouch to succeed Davis. Davis has retained Walter Dressel Mt Gilead attorney to press the actions for damages.

Denounce His Slash of Appropriation for Orphans' Home at Xenia

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI O July 15—Fourth Ohio district American Legionnaires today had been counseled by a past national commander to make it so hot for Gov Davey at their state convention in Dayton next month that neither he nor any governor in the future will put their hands on the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Ohpans home in Xenia.

Milt D Campbell past commander and now secretary of the board of trustees of the Xenia home termed Gov Davey's blind veto of expense items for the institution nothing less than a catastrophe.

Forget what side of the political fence you are on he told delegates to the district quarterly convention. It is time Gov Davey learns that the American Legion will not permit him to tamper with little sons and daughters of their dead comrades in order to effect a saving.

The convention by resolution demanded that the governor call a special session of the general assembly to remedy conditions as serfedly arising from the veto action.

Gov Davey said Campbell can jump on us able bodied and disabled veterans if he wants for we can fight back but when he picks on the helpless orphans of our dead comrades he is not going to get away with it.

H L Skeets of Middletown was elected district commander.

No one can increase your rent if you own your own home.

But even better reason for buying a home now are given by Col John P Hogan chairman of the Construction League of the United States who declared in a statement issued through the office of the league that at least $1,200,000,000 worth of home construction is needed at once if a shortage is to be avoided.

This housing shortage alone is sufficient to send values sky high.

Economic factors are right now pushing values and prices upward.

REAL ESTATE is sure and the profits are BIG for the man or woman who will consider the convincing facts confronting us now and will then commence their buying BEFORE (not after) everyone else does.

90% of all millionaires become so through owning Real Estate. More money has been made in Real Estate than in all industrial investments combined.

Today's new homes are available at bargain prices because their builders have had the advantage of bargain costs (when labor and materials cost less).

These low prices and terms cannot last.

Both labor and material costs are going up.

Added to that is the ever growing housing shortage.

The man who buys today is going to heap the harvest of his investment in the months to come. This man might as well be you.

Your Health

BY DR. R. S. COPELAND

Rheumatism

RHEUMATISM IS one of the oldest and most neglected of diseases. It is commonly confused with neuritis arthritis neuralgia and other similar ailments. For years it was regarded as a minor ailment and treatment consisted of nothing more than old fashioned home remedies.

Today we know rheumatism is an infectious disease caused by some germ. It is true that the particular germ responsible has never been isolated but it is probably a form of streptococcus. When the exact organism is discovered more rapid strides will be made in the treatment and prevention of this disabling infection.

This disease is rarely encountered in warm climates. It is more prevalent in low altitudes damp and cold localities. It afflicts males and females alike. Although rheumatism is more commonly found in persons between the ages of five and thirty years the disease may occur at any age.

The acute form of rheumatism is extremely painful and disabling. This form is called acute rheumatic fever. The victim is suddenly stricken with high fever and pain in the joints. The pain is so severe as to confine the sufferer to bed.

Acute rheumatic fever is a serious and dangerous infection. Frequently it leads to permanent damage of the heart. The valves of the heart become involved and serious organic murmurs occur. I speak of this danger because most cases of rheumatic heart disease could have been prevented if necessary precautions had been taken.

Never resort to self diagnosis and self treatment. If a child complains of pains in the muscles or joints do not dismiss it as merely an attack of growing pains. There is no such ailment as growing pains.

During the acute stage of acute rheumatism it is best to confine the sufferer to bed. All activity must be restricted even after the fever has disappeared. This is especially advised for young sufferers with the disease and is the only means of preventing heart murmurs and other serious complications.

Do not resort to the use of any medicine unless it is prescribed by your doctor. Ointments and salves are beneficial in certain forms of rheumatism and harmful in other types. Self medication is always unwise and dangerous.

In addition to this precaution prompt attention should be given infected teeth tonsils nasal sinuses adenoids and other centers of infection. The diet should be simple and nutritious.

Climate plays an important role in the treatment of rheumatism. Whenever possible the rheumatic should stay in a climate that is dry and where there is little danger of contracting cold. He should always avoid cold and dampness.

GOVERNOR PAYS $8.50 FOR MEAL

Critics Pounce on Expense Item After Davey's Slash of Appropriations Bill

By CARL L. TURNER
International News Staff Writer

COLUMBUS, O., [illegible] as the [illegible] L [illegible] to Ohio taxpayers.

[illegible] budget for [illegible]

[illegible] had [illegible] few [illegible] expense [illegible]

And when they found the [illegible] expense voucher for Feb. 17, 1935, showed [illegible] $8.50 for one meal [illegible] alone.

[illegible] was in [illegible] the [illegible] cost only 20 cents and [illegible] which [illegible] persons [illegible] the $8.50 one.

In the state capital and most other cities that much money will [illegible] Large families in [illegible] circumstances have been able to eat for many days on a sum no larger.

[illegible] could eat that much [illegible] is troublesome [illegible] critics particularly since the governor is a man of medium stature and in no respect resembles a harvest hand.

Those who can remember back when [illegible] A. V. [illegible] was Ohio's auditor will recall the stink he raised about a supreme court judge spending 10 cents for a baked potato and charging it to the state. Setting himself up as a supreme court who held no potato baked or otherwise could prudently command that much money, especially the taxpayers' money.

The potato incident gave Ohioans many a laugh for weeks afterward, but this $8.50 meal purportedly eaten by the man who ran on the same ticket with Donahey last November may enjoy even greater longevity.

Goings on in Washington lately have the political railbirds here guessing. Since Sen. Bulkley dropped the hint there some weeks ago that he might resign before his term expires in 1939, they have been keeping an ear to the ground.

The story that seems most plausible to them is that Bulkley will resign, Davey will resign and Harold Mosier, lieutenant governor, who would then become governor, will appoint Davey to succeed Bulkley. But Davey says its all too fantastic.

James M. Cox is the Ohio Democrat closest to the President. He invariably is called in, or by coincidence just happens to be in the national capital when such matters as that now troubling local observers pops up. Later he was a White House guest but declined to be interviewed about what was discussed there.

If Davey is sincere in his statement that he knows nothing about the rumored Bulkley shift and does not want to be senator, observers believe the federal Democrats may be discussing probable Davey opponents in the gubernatorial primary next May.

ABOUT ANYTHING

IN AND AROUND MARION

Plenty of Fish

The best fishing since 3[illegible] is Bert Waters' version of his annual pilgrimage to Central Lake, Mich., where he and Mrs. Waters spent two weeks fishing. And it wasn't just fish that were biting, it was the big fish.

Mr. Waters and his wife, who also knows her way about with fishing tackle, caught their full quota of small mouth bass and the catch tipped the scales at from five to six and one-half pounds each. This is some poundage if you know your black mouth bass. Second high was one weighing six and one-quarter pounds and the rest were runners-up. Average weight for small mouth bass is four and one-half to five pounds, according to fishermen's figures.

Mr. Waters reports good luck catching walleyes, pickerel on the hotel menu, and had considerable sport in landing a gar fish described by him as being some kin to the swordfish family. The gar fish rarely strikes at artificial bait and this one after realizing its mistake put up plenty of scrap. It measured 37 inches at the post mortem and not being edible was checked up to sport entirely.

Mr. and Mrs. Waters, who live at 132 Barnhart street, were accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cook of 330 West Church street. The party returned home Saturday.

Easy To Catch

Paula Ramoth, small daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ramoth of 288 Bellevue avenue, has a fish story and she's sticking to it. Paula, who is vacationing at Lakeview, O., with her mother, went boating the other day with another [illegible].

When they came back Paula told her mother that a fish had jumped into their boat out in the middle of the lake. Listeners pooh-poohed the idea, but both Paula and her chum insisted they were telling the truth and no amount of questioning was able to break their story.

If you're the type person who brings home souvenirs from travels, be warned by the gifts one group of Marionites carried home.

Sits Down To Walk

J. W. Eichelberger, in charge of Marion federal transient relief, is becoming quite the bicycle rider material for the six-day races in the larger cities if only some of the promoters could see him tooling around the village.

After his car was stolen he took to walking, sitting down and, for several nights, the chief entertainment of the transients at the headquarters on North State street was to gather on the curb and watch him trying to maintain his balance the while he pedalled and tried to keep a weather eye to guiding the vehicle.

Joys of Rain

The much quoted ill wind in the form of a dashing rainstorm recently brought smiles to the face of one person. He stood alone, however, in a crowd of some half dozen persons marooned in a business place uptown and just beamed as the rain dashed on the pavement.

The cause: It would bring the night crawlers out and he wouldn't have to spend hours and shekels sprinkling the lawn. His enthusiasm did brighten up the faces of the rest and the conversation fell to fish and their kindred and before the rain was over we learned that no matter if you killed a turtle early in the morning it never died until sundown. Opinions differed on the number of different kinds of meat to be found in a turtle and there were sundry favorite recipes for turtle soups. It seems there is an art in the making of turtle soup and those who possess that certain gift are greatly in demand when this particular piece de resistance is to be served.

MARION ELKS AT CONVENTION

Delegation Goes to Columbus for Grand Lodge Festivities. "Ambassadors" Here

Headed by Exalted Ruler Ross [illegible] V. Pank, a party of Marion Elks went to Columbus yesterday and joined the approximately 30,000 delegates and visitors here for the 71st annual grand lodge meeting.

Convention officials estimated yesterday a throng of [illegible] of the 60,000 persons expected to attend the convention, according to The Associated Press. Business sessions will open tomorrow.

In Marion Party

Among those who went from Marion yesterday are [illegible] Pickeman, Grant F. Mouser Jr., who represented Marion lodge at the Columbus lodge's fiftieth anniversary dinner at the Elks home; Charles W. Fairbanks, who is a past state president of the Elks association; Dr. A. F. Lincott, H. P. Stauffer, T. A. Olson, A. F. [illegible], Charles W. Williams, William P. [illegible], [illegible] Dillon Jr. and Mrs. W. T. Owen, Bert A. Pierce, Fred J. Fries, E. P. Huggins, Harry Later, Earl W. [illegible] and [illegible] Plum. Marion lodge instituted Columbus Lodge No. 37 in September of 1885.

Throughout the week members of the lodge will go to Columbus to attend one or more of the sessions and the round of entertainment provided for visitors.

Marion lodge was host Saturday night to Richard F. Flood Jr. and Albert Rasmussen, ambassadors, drivers of two of the cars in the 1935 Elks goodwill fleet. Approximately 40 persons attended a dinner in their honor at Hotel Marion and later there was a reception and dance at the Elks club.

Give Entertainment

The ambassadors, both vaudeville men, entertained with songs and comedy skits, after which there was dancing to Landon's orchestra.

Sunday morning the cars left for Delaware to join six other cars in the fleet and proceed to Columbus.

Postmaster General James Farley notified convention officials that he would be unable to attend the convention because of pressing business.

This morning's program included a national golf tournament at the Wyandot Country club, a trap and skeet shooting tournament at the Columbus Gun club and a national ritualistic contest at the Elks home.

This afternoon the visitors were to be taken on a tour of the city. Tonight at 8:15 the grand exalted ruler, Michael F. Shannon of Los Angeles, and other officers will be escorted from the Deshler-Wallick hotel, convention headquarters, to Memorial hall for the seventy-first national reunion at 8:30. The reunion program will be open to the public.

Mr. Shannon will deliver the principal address. Addresses of welcome will be given by Paul M. Herbert, exalted ruler of Columbus lodge, Mayor Henry W. Worley and Gov. Martin L. Davey.

Science Perfects New Serum To Fight Paralysis Epidemic

Testing new serum

By International News Service

RALEIGH, N. C., July [illegible]. An epidemic of infantile paralysis has [illegible] North Carolina. It appears to be the most [illegible] of the disease [illegible] since the Los Angeles scourge of 1934.

Unable to cope successfully with the increasing number of cases, a [illegible] S O S call has gone out. The federal government, through the United States public health service, has answered the call.

Dr. A. G. Gilliam of Washington, D. C., has already been dispatched to the area and Dr. W. P. Dearing [illegible] is on his way. Dr. J. P. Leake, veteran of more than 25 [illegible] of combat against the polio [illegible], is leading the fight against the epidemic from his headquarters in Washington.

Southern health officials are cooperating with the U. S. health service and state officials in trying to reduce the number of new cases, which recently reached [illegible] 60 a week.

New Serum Perfected

[illegible] Keeps Mary Upstairs with Baby While Guards Hunt for the Intruder

AS I HAD conjectured, there [illegible] to awaken Katherine. [illegible] she opened the door [illegible] answer to my low [illegible] was [illegible] dressed with [illegible] luggage she had [illegible] to the mountains [illegible] fashion near the [illegible] for Jim to take [illegible]

[illegible] she said blithely [illegible] all ready for the [illegible]

[illegible] I said, [illegible] except for [illegible] the boys [illegible] me keenly [illegible] me out to tell [illegible] she asked.

[illegible] I came over, I said [illegible] forward a chair [illegible] down. I must [illegible] Mary's door so [illegible] downstairs with [illegible]. I want to get [illegible] soon as possible. I've already asked her to help you out in any way she can.

Tells Katherine of Man

"She's splendid help," Katherine commented. "But I'm all ears."

"That man who asked you about Mary was up in the rose lattice outside her window just now," I said, and went rapidly on, outlining the clever ruse which Mary had employed to see the man without him catching a glimpse of her.

"Good work," Katherine said when I had finished. "On Mary's part—and on yours in covering up those windows. It's mighty lucky he didn't see her. Send her over here right away and I'll instruct her to keep the nursery door locked while I'm gone and not to open it unless she's sure who is outside. Of course no such precaution is necessary, but it will insure her staying up here. I'll drop a hint that you are unduly worried about the baby's safety in view of the possibility that there may be spies upon your father's trail and that I am humoring you. Do you mind?"

"Do I mind?" I echoed scornfully. "Don't be idiotic. Tell her anything just so she won't suspect we have any special motive in keeping her up here."

Mary Sent to Nursery

"Then go back now," Katherine said practically, "and ask her to hurry over here. I haven't too much time for preparing Faith's food for the journey."

I was at the door as she finished and hastily crossing the hall I gave Mary the concocted message with simulated earnestness.

"I'm already there," Mary said, investing herself into big apron as she went out into the hall, tying the strings as she raced across the hall to the nursery.

I watched her until she was safely inside the nursery with the door closed behind her. Then I went to the boys' room and knocked upon the door.

Junior opened the door with Roderick so close behind him they looked like Siamese twin[s].

Boys Eager To Go

"Is it time to start?" Junior asked excitedly. "If it is we're all ready except for closing our bags. You told us not to do that until you looked them over, but every last thing is in. I'm sure we haven't forgotten anything. And we've brushed our teeth, washed behind our ears, 'n everything."

"That makes me very proud of you both," I told them smiling. "Now I'll check your bags."

"You have done a very good job," I told them when I finished, and their faces glowed. "Now strap the cases and bring them out into the [passage] and Mary's with yours. I'll [call]. Then please pile up my luggage. I'll show you where to find them. Then everything will be ready for Jim to carry down."

They carried out my instructions enthusiastically and were just putting the last bag on the pile when Dicky's voice sounded from the foot of the stairs.

"Madge! Come down here quickly! See that neither the boys nor Mary come downstairs until we send for them."

Flowers and Shrubs Add To Charm of Parkway

Modern Residential Section Started in 1920, R. T. Lewis Heads Realty Development Firm

The plan of Vernon Heights was conceived in 1920 by R. T. Lewis and the a[illegible] large [illegible] comprises [illegible] acres [illegible] through which a boulevard [illegible] extends from Vernon Heights avenue to McKinley [illegible]. Landscaping of the entire addition was done by the nationally known landscape firm of Pitkin and M[illegible].

The first home in Vernon Heights was built in 1921 and the following 14 years have seen 3[illegible] homes spring into existence with the 34th home now in progress of construction.

The residences vary in type of architecture and size and are all in the higher priced bracket. Driving along Vernon Heights streets you will see homes built of stone, brick, stucco, [illegible] and shingle with many different styles of architecture.

There is a four acre park in the center of the project where the boulevard turns to the west and east and [illegible] parkway that extends through the entire length of the boulevard. The great beauty of the parkway attracts many visitors who come from many miles each spring to view the multitude of blossoms and flowers and shrubs in bloom. Right now the Hydrangeas are in bloom and presenting a sight of rare beauty to people driving through the boulevard.

Home sites in Vernon Heights are sold under restrictions. These restrictions, which are not severe, assure protection to present home owners and also to future home builders. Chief among the restrictions are the following: Plans for the new houses must meet the approval of the company. They also must conform to certain fixed standards which however are not prohibitive. Houses on the boulevard must set back 60 feet from the front lot line and 50 feet from the front lot line on the avenues. All wires leading to houses must be through conduit, eliminating all danger to children and others from overhead wires.

Plans are now progressing for a new home of today to be built on the boulevard and it is hoped that sufficient interest will be aroused to build it. It will then be furnished and shown to the public. Hoped for also is for a moderate priced home to be built on Lexley avenue in order to show improvements in construction of these [illegible].

The problem of commuting from homes far out has been made much simpler by the automobile that people now prefer to live away from the dirt and noise of traffic. For that reason, when the new building program gets under way it is anticipated that Vernon Heights will be a very busy place.

The Vernon Heights Realty company maintains ground floor offices at 209 West Center street and Mr. Lewis is always glad to welcome any inquiries about home sites in Vernon Heights.

FAULTLESS CO. GIVES SUMMER PROTECTION

You're hardly expected to be able to notice it yourself, that unmistakable odor that clings to clothes worn too often and too long without proper dry cleaning. But others will notice it at your office as well as during the personal [illegible] while you sit or [illegible] at a [illegible] this summer, and those people will judge you critically, brand you offensive.

Don't risk offending this way. It's costly, far more expensive in the end than sending clothes regularly to the Faultless Dry Cleaners for cleaning.

Here summer suits and frocks are made flawlessly clean of all stains, grease spots and, most important of all, unpleasant odors. Light summer fabrics are treated with special care as to [illegible] and shape. They're expertly pressed too.

The Faultless Dry Cleaners maintain two offices, one in the Palace Theater building and the main office at 137 East Church street. Their phone numbers are 2526 and 2555 and a call will bring their pickup man to your door.

GILMORE GREASING JOB IS PROTECTION

Important parts are often overlooked in the average car greasing job. Watch it. Protect yourself against annoyance and expensive repairs. Neglected chassis parts are the cause of many an unnecessary repair bill.

At Gillie Gilmore's Texaco station located at the corner of Greenwood and East Center streets no part of your car is overlooked after they grease it, because they [illegible]. Texaco Certified Lubrication Service will be better for any car. You get certain protection. Every bearing checked and lubricated and with exactly the right lubricant the car manufacturer intended should be used. In these days of hot weather it is doubly important that you should have your car checked regularly, and Gillie's station is the place to have your greasing done.

Gillie is also offering Firestone tires at a 10 per cent reduction and car owners should take advantage of this special offer now due to the fact that the special reduction prices might be canceled any day.

Their phone number is 2862. Call them and they'll call for and deliver your car.

FIRM AIDS GARAGES TO REPAIR MACHINES

The average car owner, when having his car repaired or overhauled, never gives a thought to where the motor or replacement parts might come from as well as a great deal of the important work.

The Automotive Supply company located at 127 North State street and operated by Jay Newell plays a more important part in the repairing of automobiles than most people realize.

In addition to supplying garages with absolutely first class replacement parts they also have a complete shop for motor overhauling, which includes cylinder reboring, valve refacing, piston grinding, testing of valve springs and clutch springs and hard metal grinding. This shop is operated in conjunction with garages who do not own the type of equipment necessary for that work. They therefore sublet that work to the Automotive Supply company who makes a specialty of motor overhauling and replacements.

Mr. Newell invites anyone interested who would like to see their [illegible] in operation to visit his store at 127 North State street any time.

FAIRBANKS - MORSE GETS TWO AWARDS

Fairbanks-Morse home appliances received two [illegible] awards for their refrigerator Conservador and one for their washing machine [illegible] at the National Inventors Congress [illegible] at the Hotel Sherman in Chicago. This is the second time the Conservador has been accorded such recognition.

What is the Conservador? It is an [illegible] behind the main door [illegible] shelves which hold the [illegible] frequently used items. Opens automatically at the touch of a button.

Irrespective of electric refrigerator [illegible] it is especially interesting looking at this Conservador at this time as they are now offering special reductions up to $50 on 1935 models. The Fairbanks Morse Conservador refrigerator is handled in Marion by Baldauf & Schlientz Inc. at their own store located at 251 West Center street.

FLOOD CLAIMS LIVES OF 10,000 CHINESE

Surging Waters Burst Dyke and Inundate Two Thirds of River Town

By The Associated Press

HANKOW China July 15—Chinese advices estimated 10 000 persons perished today when the flood waters of the Han river surged through a dyke near Hanyang overwhelming a large area of the thickly populated country side. Two thirds of Hanyang itself adjacent to Hankow was estimated to be under water. The remainder of the city is situated on hills to which much of the populace fled while the water boiled and eddied about their homes.

The Han river flood has far outstripped in severity the previous rampages of this river. The district survived the disasters of 1870 and 1931.

The water mark of the Yangtze river at Hankow dropped slightly late today but this city too was menaced with the dykes already weakened by the pounding waters.

A further disaster was predicted. The roaring stream ripped a section 10 feet deep and one third of a mile long from the Changkung dyke principal bulwark protecting the city.

Army navy and marine corps have been invited to attend and they are expected to send their newest in fighting planes and their most spectacular pilots with promise that the service arms will present this year a performance surpassing in every angle the brilliant performances in past years.

New transcontinental records are expected in the Bendix trophy race across the country. The Thompson trophy race world speed classic is expected to set new speed marks and the Greve trophy race will bring out new light and fast planes.

New Glassware

Then new glassware for the serving of frozen desserts and iced beverages made me realize again how very important these foods are in the midsummer menu Now such dishes and glassware are also found in your shops and this year cheaper it seems to me than in any previous year If you can dine on the porch buy these simple lacquered fabric table mats They look like oil cloth only they last longer and the shine isn't quite so pronounced They are cheap are cleaned by simply wiping with a damp cloth and do nicely for all porch service to family They save laundry work

Menu Planning

I have emphasized previously that even in hot weather at least one meal of the day should have at least one hot cooked dish The stomach needs the heated food as stimulant But this may be the main dish of luncheon or supper or it may be the breakfast And for the most part the other meals may be salads fresh fruits vegetables cold meats cheese fruit beverages iced tea and iced coffee with bread served now in place of the hot rolls and biscuits in demand in cooler weather Here are typical menus for July days Vary them to suit your markets and your family tastes Add a hearty main dish to the cold suppers if men and boys in the family are engaged in heavy work or if children of the run about age play actively Both need energizing rebuilding foods

- The - Marry-Go-Round

BY HELEN ROWLAND

MARRIAGE—REAL AND SYNTHETIC

Long distance marriage is like perpetual motion Theoretically it is perfectly plausible—but it has one drawback It won't work

When a screen star who must live in Hollywood marries a Wall Street man who must live in New York she might as well have her divorce decree printed on the back of her wedding certificate and save time It's all in the cards anyhow

Marriage like food comes in so many modern disguises these days that it is hard to tell when it's really marriage and when it's just something synthetic which the theorists have invented to make marriage seem painless

Theoretically 3,000 miles of distance should free marriage from all the little domestic annoyances and lend it the enchantment which would preserve eternal romance But somehow a daily telephone call does not fill any man's life and a husband who is merely a visitor does not seem like a husband He gradually becomes just a symbol like the statue of Liberty or the Washington monument You may love admire and revere him—but only academically

Love is not an air plant which can subsist on hot air and sweet nothings And there is no such thing as eternal romance any more than there is an eternal sunrise or eternal spring

Marriage after all is a merger not a mutual detachment Even two people who live within easy commuting distance are not really married they are merely legally tied Marriage means companionship with mutual interests mutual aims and mutual struggles and pleasures And that means taking your burdens and sacrifices along with your kisses

What normal woman would want a husband who remained forever a romantic dream lover, and never had to be mothered scolded petted or soothed? Who never got his feet wet or had to have his finger bandaged or had to be dosed with aspirin and soda? And what man would want a wife who never climbed onto his knees and had a good cry and never had to be babied or coddled or bullied?

It is these thousand little ties of interdependence which weld two married people together, until nothing but dynamite can tear them apart.

But if you live in Washington or San Francisco, you can't worry much about a dream-husband in Pittsburgh or Boston. And if a man lives in New York or Detroit, he soon ceases to feel any anxiety how the Little Woman in Atlanta or Hollywood is getting along.

A long-distance marriage is a denatured marriage. It has none of the realities which make marriage. No common interests, common hopes, fears, disappointments, struggles, triumphs—and fights. It is like living all your life in the drawing-room and never wearing anything but your evening clothes.

READY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

(Copyright 1935 Coralie Stanton)

SYNOPSIS: Rex and Laurie Moore are only pretending to be married so that each may hold his job with Mark Albery airplane manufacturer Now Laurie has discovered that her employer is in love with her just when Rex is on his way home from a successful flight over Africa Laurie's sister Gladys also has her problems—she is in love with Jimmy Dallas although she knows Jimmy lied to her when he first met calling himself Jimmy Smith

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

Rex Returns

ALBERY'S smooth voice was a command Laurie accepted it as business Perhaps he wanted to make corrections in the report

I will go and telephone my sister she said

When Albery came into her office he said

Mrs Moore I didn't mention it on Sunday but this fuel that we are working on is a secret I suppose Moore has not told you about it?

Oh no she said warmly

I knew he hadn't But I would just like you to know It is a very important discovery It will give us a great advantage in the air when we get it right That is one of the reasons why I am glad to have you doing my private correspondence

Of course I should not mention it to anybody Laurie said and added in a slightly stiff voice Rex does not talk to me about his profession

You must be excited about his return He will be a greater hero than ever I thought I would mention about the fuel being a secret but I am sure you are the soul of discretion Then with his flashing smile he added When we get the fuel right perhaps we'll call it after you Laurie Prettier than B P or Pratts or Mex or Ethyl isn't it?

She laughed in natural amusement but grew apprehensive again as he said quietly

I hope you have quite forgiven me for what I said the other day It has been painful to me to remember that I lost my self control I wanted to speak of it at Fen Gretton on Sunday but I hadn't the pluck

Her discomfort was swallowed in a swift rush of pity Why should this man be apologizing to her so humbly? This man who had done everything for her given her a place in the world an interest in life self support and self respect. Of course some brain crisis must have overcome him when he had told her that he loved her when he had tried to take her in his arms

Please Mr Albery don't say anything more about it. I shall never think of it again

There is one way in which I don't want you really to forget, Mrs Moore he persisted with that sad little smile that made his face so old and so inscrutable. "I only want you to forgive me But I don't want you to forget that if ever you need a friend, I am here And I am not ashamed of your knowledge that it has made me unhappy that you have come too late into my life"

Laurie looked at him with an embarrassed but grateful smile. She could not help feeling flattered and honored.

Behind his impassive Oriental mask Mark Albery was at that moment asking himself questions that would have amazed her.

"How can I get her? What is there under her skin? What is it that I want in her? What is she really like? Or is there dust in my eyes? Is she a Sphinx without a secret? Why does any man [illegible] want? Why can't I [illegible] Can I buy her? [illegible]

Mad delirious chaotic thoughts behind that impassive face that Laurie glanced at now and then in profile from her seat in the big car But on the surface only an elegant man of the world an appreciative employer helping his efficient secretary out of his car in front of a restaurant in the Strand

About an hour later Rex Moore rang the bell of the flat in Chelsea and the porter deposited his light luggage in the hall when Gladys opened the door

Oh exclaimed the girl who knew him at once from his photos in the papers but was rather overcome by his size and vitality and his outlandish clothes It's Rex Moore isn't it? I say Laurie isn't in

Isn't she? And you're Gladys? He wrung her hand and she was quick to grip the pulsing life of that grip like an electric shock

She stared at him

She wasn't expecting you She rang up a little while ago to say she was late at the office and was having dinner with Mr Albery She said she wouldn't be late home

Late at the office The good old man's excuse now in the mouths of women Rex Moore gave an angry little laugh that Gladys didn't understand but thought thrilling and frightfully strong She was actually thrilled to the bone by his personality as she told her sister she would be

I'm afraid there's nothing to eat she told Rex And Mrs Budd has gone

That's all right I had something at Croydon and if I want anything more I can go out

He was hurt at Laurie being out How ridiculous! And dining with Albery Why shouldn't she? It could be no business of his He had seen that Albery was keen on her And he hadn't advised her of his arrival He hadn't sent a single word since he left As a matter of fact he hadn't intended to start until tomorrow but Wilmer Jones had taken a sudden turn for the better and was out of danger

But he was in a bad mood News of his arrival had got through and there had been quite a crowd at Croydon although it was nearly dark and the newspaper men had rattled him no end

He was not cut out for a hero and they tried to make him one He didn't deserve all this kudos Wilmer Jones had just as much right to it Only poor Jimmy was ill in Marseilles And being as sensitive as a woman in some ways which nobody guessed and hating himself for it he was in a very nasty temper

So you are Gladys he said with his surprising smile like a bright light behind his eyes But it was an absent recognition

Rex gets a phone call from a woman tomorrow

Taking It Calmly.

Henry Ford with the advantage of almost 72 years of experience to draw upon is setting a good example for the holders of large fortunes in these days of wealth sharing proposals He's keeping his shirt on

That's the more remarkable because Mr Ford's fortune being very large is one of the choicer tidbits dangled by the wealth sharers If he weren't able to be philosophical about it he would have good cause to take up cudgels in its defense

The main thing wrong with wealth sharing as he sees it isn't injustice to the holders of great amounts of wealth but the impossibility of doing the thing in the first place It's a fact that politicians haven't worked out a formula yet

Take Mr Ford's fortune for instance Some of it no doubt is in cash a small part That could be divided up It wouldn't go far and it might do no harm to Mr Ford unless his business ran into another long siege of bad business In that case there would be no surplus and his thousands of employes would have to take things as they came

By far the larger part of the Ford fortune of course is represented by buildings machinery land mines railroads and that intangible business asset known as good will If they divide up the plant and the organization what will they do with it? Mr Ford calmly inquires

There's an answer for that one which most Americans wealth sharers or not will find agreeable They meaning the politicians who would be trustees for the distributing process would make a mess of it By indicating the real objection to wealth sharing instead of merely objecting to it as unfair Mr Ford is making a valuable contribution to the country's depleted store of economic sanity

Tip for a Press Agent

According to a handful of indignant Parisians trying to make an example of an American dancer for offending the morals of the world's fun capital dancing nudity is wrong for two reasons

First they claim that since Hitler suppressed nude dancing in Germany the Nazi birth rate has risen 3[illegible]000 a year It seems almost too simple to be true but there's a growing demand for cannon fodder

Second they want it made clear that Paris is not Chicago Nude dancing may be great stuff in the big town but Paris doesn't want to get a bad name Our grandfathers would have retorted Oh yeah? to that one

There's no call for agreeing or disagreeing with the French moralizers This is a tip for press agents Sally Rand had a great idea So did the fellow who invented button shoes The world moves though and yesterday's stroke of genius becomes tomorrow's third strike

What the world needs right now isn't a good five cent cigar but a dancer who wears clothes Take it away press agents Think of the free space waiting for the first genius who exploits the completely concealed dancer It would be so completely different so new so startling

Useless Disagreement

Policemen are interested in locking up men and women who are dangerous to society Prison officials the humane and enlightened ones are interested in releasing prisoners as soon as it is possible to do so safely

There's nothing to disagree about between the two viewpoints Yet it is not uncommon for policemen to talk as though their efforts to protect society were being frustrated by [illegible] policies on the part of some prison officials particularly of those who advocate wider and more intelligent use of parole

J Edgar Hoover head of the federal bureau of investigation who has become well known for his uncompromising views on handling criminals recently made that [illegible] Mr Hoover is bitter about the fact that certain notorious criminals who have given his department a chase were on parole from prison His bitterness is understandable

Yet it is unfair The fact a paroled prisoner gets into trouble does not mean all paroled prisoners go into trouble [illegible] does not warrant censure [illegible] of the whole theory of parole It is significant that the most ardent believers in parole always are willing to agree with critics who say the parole system is imperfect They do not agree that its imperfections are grounds for condemnation

Warden Lewis E Lawes of Sing Sing [illegible] Mr Hoover or [illegible]

[illegible] a considerable percentage of the [illegible] offenders to [illegible] criticism [illegible]

The Idea Behind It

[illegible] this time [illegible] $1,000,000 a year and with the present [illegible] certain charges [illegible] $[illegible]000

It's well to remember the idea behind the committee in connection with the report [illegible] former [illegible] and headed by a [illegible] who helped make Cincinnati as far cry for good government as it once was for bad government the committee is doing in Ohio what business men do when their expenses exceed incomes It is finding places where money could be saved

Government is notoriously careless with money principally because it doesn't earn any money but only spends it Other factors which contribute to carelessness are politics and the absence of central authority over a huge sprawling organization whose activities reach into all kinds of remote places Government jobholders aren't conscious of the unity which most private job holders feel

It would be naive to suppose that Ohio's government will be reorganized to conform with the Sherrill committee's recommendations Perhaps nothing will come of the report at all Yet it is going to be difficult in the future for politicians to talk about the cost of government in this state without explaining why a fact finding committee was able to show how as much as $5,000,000 could be saved without sacrificing a single thing except the inefficiency of a swollen bureaucracy It's going to be hard to overlook such interesting evidence

Still Debatable

Great Britain which has been debating the question of pulling itself out of depressions by public works for many years still is on the skeptical side The experience of the United States isn't helping the British to be less skeptical

It is easily forgotten that as recently as three years ago in this country there was raging a public debate over public works as a means of softening the shock of depleted buying power on business The post office building program authorized during the Hoover administration was the child of bitter controversy

When President Roosevelt abandoned the policy of local responsibility for relief the decision was hailed as the beginning of an experiment to settle an issue of long standing All that has been forgotten now as such things usually are

The United States is more interested in the details of the experiment than in the theory behind it Probably no one will be sure for several years at least that the theory was proved or disproved Americans are doubtful of many things that are being done but they do not have the advantage of perspective which enables the British to condemn the whole program outright

David Lloyd George's British recovery program a frank imitation of the new deal plan for recovery has given British conservatives their excuse to serve notice they do not intend to follow in the footsteps of the United States If there is a word which has been ridden to death remarked Prime Minister Baldwin in his first important speech in commons It is the word plan I have seen nothing of planning by any foreign country which would lead me to think it is a universal panacea Is it possible the British may be grateful to their cousins for experimenting in this costly experiment they might have been forced to undertake otherwise"

MORROW COUNTY PROBLEMS

Boundary lines and the selection of a county seat for Morrow county were problems of considerable moment to the state legislature [illegible] as well as lobbyists left to [illegible] in the middle and late 1840s

The contest was substantially between the Chester and Gilead claims [illegible] though supported by sufficient funds was weak and [illegible] a short time Gilead had the biggest purse and expected from [illegible] to [illegible] no less than [illegible] to win the county seat The [illegible] maintained six [illegible] the last [illegible] of the [illegible] Mount [illegible] one or two [illegible] more

Behind The News In

Washington And Wall Street

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON July 15—What President Roosevelt told Mr Ickes at lunch the other day will remain forever a secret between them Mr Ickes cannot be expected to tell Mr Roosevelt has too much regard for the feelings of the bad boy of his official family As a matter of fact no word from either was necessary The look on Mr Ickes face spoke for them It was so obvious that all *present agreed the cabinet mis*chief maker had been taken on another trip to the woodshed for a corrective lesson

The trouble he got into by trying to muss up the senate Virgin Islands investigation seems to be generally regarded as sufficient cause for as much paddling as Mr Roosevelt thought necessary to administer

Resignation"

This semi public action has encouraged hasty rumors that the President and his interior secretary are about to part company In fact facetious insiders already are speculating about the letter which the President will send to Ickes accepting his resignation They say it will come from what now is known as the kiss of death form letter file

It was from this file that President Roosevelt lifted the letters he sent to Gen Johnson and others who have slipped on the deck of the ship of state and have fallen or been pushed gently overboard It will start out Dear Friend Harold will say what great help he has been how sad the President is that he must go and conclude with the hope that the President will be able to use him again some time

Those who have been lighting the President's cigarets lately do not believe this letter will ever be written They have noted that Ickes enjoys an apparent understanding with the President such as is not shared by any other official

Faith and Hope

Mr Ickes is the only cabineteer who has talked back to the President in private Mr Roosevelt has taken more from him than any other official All the White House gang knows this

The reason is that Mr Roosevelt admires Mr Ickes courage as a fighter and his honesty The fact that Mr Ickes is generally fighting a friend of the President and usually is on the wrong side of the question does not change the situation—at least it has not so far

President Roosevelt knows that his interior secretary will always insist on sticking his neck out at all the world that he will usually get punched in the nose But he likes his bad boy just the same

So far Mr Ickes has been on the mat with Messrs Hopkins Wallace Farley Hurja Moffet and most of the senators and congressmen While he has not yet won a fight his hope never diminishes

Presidentialities

What makes Mr Ickes unpopular among many New Dealers is the suspicion they have that he has presidential aspirations

This may not be true as far as he personally is concerned but certainly it may be said without fear of contradiction that his friends have presidential aspirations for him Also the publicity emanating from his department is not entirely impersonal It keeps him in the public eye more than his department [illegible] about the country making speeches on subjects somewhat removed from the Interior Department or PWA

Pacification

State Secretary Hull called in Italian Ambassador Rosso on Ethiopia because the peace societies squawked long and loud over the [illegible] to the Ethiopian emperor They said he was condemning Italian aggression and he had to do a little something to quiet them

This does not mean that Mr Hull intends to play [illegible] the affair Personally he has the same feeling that a lot of other Americans share regarding [illegible] ability of [illegible] the world

Timing

[illegible] have approved of the Senator Holt and Representative Lewis [illegible] down the advice of the Democratic publicity man Charles Michelson by appearing at the University of Virginia Institute of public affairs

The fact is they followed [illegible] They failed to appear at the spots designated for them on the program with American Liberty League speakers In fact they waited a few days until the league speakers had gone and then they appeared with their own hurrahs for the New Deal

Myths

The season for hot weather stories now is on in full blast The latest myth to get in national circulation by word of mouth is that President Roosevelt made an inside deal with the Supreme court to have the NPA held unconstitutional so that he could get out of it

Anyone who knows anything at all about government knows it is impossible for the President or anyone else to make a deal with the Supreme court

BY JAMES McMULLEN

NEW YORK July 15 — New Yorkers can't figure out how tax legislation got to the head of President Roosevelt's must list but they're satisfied if he is They rate it the best possible issue to throw congress into still greater confusion and disrupt what's left of Democratic party discipline

Conservatives deplore that the President is trying to steal their balanced budget thunder and hitch it up to a soak the rich philosophy that will gratify left wing sentiment But this time they are confident he has been too smart for his own good They also believe the administration gesture to belie dictatorship charges—leaving the whole problem up to congress—will renew adversely on the White House They can't see congress rushing to assume responsibility for the one type of legislation which is always unpopular assuming that it can be broadened to include other besides the ultra wealthy

And new deal elements will help things along by seeing to it that viewpoints differing widely in detail are presented at committee hearings and thus contribute to the stirring up of heated arguments among the legislators The object is to prevent an agreement on any specific program and intensify Congressional impatience and resentment at being kept in Washington

Credit

A few large corporations have borrowed heavily from banks for refunding purposes but business in general remains reluctant to incur new obligations

● Commercial loans by reporting member banks of the federal reserve system came very close to the depression low last week The figure was $5,149,000,000 only $13,000,000 above the record contraction in July a year ago The peak for such loans since the new deal came into office was $4,000,000,000 in November in 1933—which shows what little effect various government measures have had on the volume of business credit The maximum variation in the two years of the Roosevelt administration is only a trifle more than 10 per cent

These figures plainly show the [illegible] expansion [illegible] complete flop in offsetting [illegible] private industry [illegible] the enormous excess reserves which Federal Reserve policies have created for the banks Administration officials claim this is conclusive evidence of business [illegible] of confidence The [illegible] hands [illegible] campaign

Hunger

[illegible] the new dealers are so long disposed to blame the banks for this state of affairs it has become too obvious that the banks are eager to extend credit to any [illegible] they can find

A [illegible] of recent [illegible] how eager the banks are [illegible] to a commodation prospects [illegible] borrower [illegible] a corporation planned to raise money by floating a public issue of 15-year bonds Then it shopped around and discovered it could get five [illegible] banks loans to be amortized 20 per cent a year at a considerable saving in interest charges and [illegible] Not so long ago the banks would have turned up their noses at such a proposition In another case a customer of long standing went to a leading New York bank and demanded a large loan for a straight five year period with no amortization This particular institution still adheres to traditional banking standards and refused the application It lost the customer as a result for another New York bank of solid reputation showed no hesitation in granting his request

More than half of the New York clearing house banks reported smaller earnings for the first half of 1935 than for the same period a year ago It's no wonder they're hungry for any kind of new business they can reasonably accept They're more than willing to put their idle funds to work but business in sound condition just aren't interested

Threat

The steel industry's one for all and all for one policy—surprising in the light of its past history—is still bearing fruit Prices have been maintained at NPA levels and production activity is holding up remarkably well

But customers who expected cheaper prices when the code was cancelled are still searching for a crack in the industry armor A large automobile manufacturer is determined to break down the Pittsburgh plus system—whereby steel bought in Detroit mills is billed as if it had been shipped from Pittsburgh Detroit producers have been warned that this corporation will do its steel purchasing elsewhere if they can't see their way clear to eliminate this extra expense

It would be a severe blow to Detroit steel makers if the threat were carried out The entire industry is waiting with bated breath to see what happens Once the carefully established price structure breaks down anywhere experts predict a competitive free-for all will follow with probable shattering of wage and hour standards

Good Will

A distinguished group of British physicians and surgeons will visit New York early in August on their way to the annual meeting of the British Medical association in Melbourne

The party will be entertained while here by Dr F E Sondern president of the Medical society of the State of New York The meeting is planned to cement friendly relations between English and American members of the medical profession

Astute observers comment that the British government is cultivating [illegible] the opportunities to foster Anglo American good will on [illegible] lines

Crucial Week Ahead in Softball League Battle

BISHOP-FOREST LAWN TILT HEADS WEEK'S SOFTBALL PROGRAM

Runner-up position to the Susquehanna Silk Mill nine in the Industrial League will be at stake Thursday and Friday nights when the Steam Shovel and Gasco and Huber W. & D. outfits lock horns. The Diggers are slated to oppose the Gasco team Thursday night at 9 o'clock and the Threshermen will tangle in a single game attraction Friday.

These four teams are running a close race for first division honors and will find the going tough this week. The Huber W. & D. encounter Friday night is the play-off of a 4 to 4 struggle in their first round meeting last month.

Another night feature is scheduled for Wednesday night when Pleasant Lutherans, tied for the top in the Commercial League, tangle with the fast stepping K. of P. club. This game is moved forward one week to enable Art Amick, Pythian pitcher, to turn in another performance before his National Guard unit goes to camp.

In the second game of the week's only doubleheader the Saratoga Grill nine will play the Upper Sandusky Elks Wednesday night following the Pleasant-K. of P. game.

Will Play Tonight

A classic non-league battle is scheduled for tonight under the lights at Lincoln park. The Walters and Disbennett club is bringing the Plain City Indians here for a return game. The Marionites won their game on the Plain City diamond 4 to 3 in nine innings. This game should be a close, hard fought game giving the W. & D. team a good warmup for their two league tilts of the week.

High spots on the week's schedule of twilight games includes St. Mary vs. Wesley M. E. tonight at Lincoln; Presbies vs. Calvary at Garfield Tuesday; Christian vs. St. Mary at Garfield, Wednesday; Silk Mill vs. W. & D. at Steam Shovel field Thursday and the Elks vs. Erie Traffic at President field Friday night.

Although the list of postponed games for the first round has been whittled down to nine, postponed affairs in the second half have boosted the total of delayed contests to 23. Many of the first half leftovers will be played off this week, it is hoped.

RECORD CROWD AT MAR-O-DEL COURSE

The largest crowd in three years visited the Mar-O-Del Country club on the Marion-Delaware road yesterday. More than 150 golfers played under a blazing sun, while the attendance for Saturday boosted the week end figure to over 250.

In the last finals of the three flights of handicap play, Ray Grummell won from John Waddell 2 to 1. Winners in a blind bogey tourney yesterday were W. J. Rowle, John Bush, Leo Gioll and Dick Norris. The four were tied when 89 was drawn as winning tally. Second was Paul Kinnear with a 90, the second score drawn.

[illegible] Cubs [illegible] Cards [illegible] the Phillies twice yesterday [illegible] extended their winning streak to [illegible] straight.

The largest crowd of the St. Louis season [illegible] turned out to see the Cardinals take a pair of easy victories [illegible] behind the masterful flinging of Paul Dean and Bill Walker.

The Cubs [illegible] over the cellar [illegible] Braves 7 to 5 for their [illegible] straight [illegible] Frank [illegible] cut three hits [illegible] four runs [illegible].

Meanwhile the Giants, suffering from a shortage of pitchers, took a 4 to 2 set back from Pittsburgh as Cy Blanton held them to six hits.

The Cincinnati Reds, who have been doing a little winning on their own account, moved into fifth place with a double triumph over Brooklyn, 9 to 1 and 4 to 2, to sweep the five game series.

With the aid of the clouting Athletics the Yankees managed to stave off one threat to their American League lead by splitting a doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox while the A's turned back the second place Tigers 4 to 3 in 10 innings. That increased the Yankee lead to 1½ games.

TED LYONS

Ted Lyons, Chicago veteran, blanked the leaders with five hits as the Sox won the opener 3 to 0 and gained his tenth victory, but Johnny Broaca bested three Sox hurlers in the afterpiece and won 5 to 4 as Lou Gehrig's fourteenth homer supplied the odd tally.

RED BIRDS WIN TWO TO CAPTURE SECOND PLACE IN STANDING

Columbus Takes 10 Out of 11 Since July 4, Indians Drop Doubleheader.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 15—Hitting their stride, the Columbus Red Birds have lashed into a tie for second place in the American Association pennant race.

On the night of July 4, the date when baseball standings for the year are supposed to be cemented, the Red Birds were in fifth place 9½ games behind the setting Minneapolis Millers.

Since then they have won 10 out of 11 games and are in a second place tie with Indianapolis, six games to the rear of the Millers.

Before 8,555 customers the Red Birds yesterday took a double-header from St. Paul 3 to 2 and 7 to 4. Bud Tinning outpitched Lo Fette in the first and Mike Ryba hung up his 11th victory of the season. Nick Cullop also hammered out his 17th home run.

Indianapolis dropped a pair to Kansas City. The Blues smashed out 20 hits to win the opener 12 to 2 and then captured the second 5 to 1.

Minneapolis didn't budge an inch, however, winning both sections of its doubleheader against Toledo 5 to 2 and 8 to 5, while Milwaukee divided with Louisville, winning the first 3 to 1 and losing the second 1 to 7.

WON'T SHIFT BOUTS TO INDOOR PROGRAM

Masked Terror-Bozzell Scrap Features Wrestling Bill Tonight

Predictions of fair weather for this afternoon and tonight virtually assured fans that the Monday night feature mat program will be held outdoors tonight.

The rough and tumble wrestling card slated for tonight was to be taken from the open air arena to the Steam Shovel gymnasium if the threatening weather still prevailed late this afternoon.

One of the largest crowds of the summer season is expected to witness the Masked Terror and the slam-bang artist, Paul Bozzell, tangle in one half of a double main event card. The second match will bring together Speedy LaRance and Ken Hollis, the rough and tough New Mexico matman. Both matches will be over the hour and a half time limit route.

The program is scheduled to start at 8:30 o'clock with a 20-minute preliminary match.

DIZZY DEAN RESTED, MAY WORK TODAY

Temperamental Star and Teammates Differ on Cause of Uprising

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, July 15—Unless three days of rest is not enough—once one day was too much—Dizzy Dean will pitch for the St. Louis Cardinals today.

The temperamental star was too fatigued yesterday.

It was a gala day with World Series flag raising, diamond rings and 21,000 fans including Baseball Commissioner Landis and National League President Frick.

Dizzy and Paul Paul had been advertised as the pitchers in the twin bill with the Phillies. Paul pitched and won 5 to 1.

But Dizzy was found reclining in the trainer's room when his turn came.

"My arm's tired," he said, "and I don't want to work when it ain't feelin' just right."

Unkind teammates had another explanation. Too much Hallahan, they said. His sulking made little difference as Bill Walker, as a last minute substitute, easily won the night cap 10 to 1.

STEEL MEN LOSE TO COLORED TEAM

The Marion Colored Independents defeated the Commercial Steel baseball club 11 to 7 in a free hitting game on the Commercial field diamond Sunday.

Simms, the new Independent pitcher, was relieved by West in the fifth after the Steelmen had scored three runs. Harruff pitched good ball for the Steelmen but received poor support, eight errors being chalked up behind him. Simms hit a long home run drive to deep centerfield in the fourth.
